FASHIONABLE WEDDING .- Within the ralatial residence of Francis L. Smith, esq . on Walle street at 5 o'clock this evening, were assembled a large number of the elite of the city and essewhere, the occasion being the papelal ceremonies of that gentleman's youngest sangater, one of Alexandria's fairest belles. the beautiful, fascinating and accomplished Mrs Salie Vowell Smith, and Mr. Edward Lusdale Daingerfield, son of John B. Dainganiell, esq., of this city. Cards of invitation were xremard only to the family connexions of bride and groom and to their most intimate personal triends, yet these were in suffi east numbers to fall to repletion the spacious

The wedding ceremony was performed a la tab can, and presented a scene to the elegant as-cublage of artistic arrangement and scenic b auty secreely imaginable and rarely realized, that waited the speciators into the pleasing rea ms of fairy land. Arrayed in a most exquisite treusseau, and surrounded by her seven bull-smaids, also charmingly and tastefully atfired, the bride was the impersonation of radiant beauty, subdued leveliness and artless intoccuce.

St. Clair Brookes, Jao. M. Johnson, Frank Presimen, Chas. S. Taylor, jr., B. M Smith and Courdend H. Smith.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Norton, of St. Paul's Courch, in a most impressive manner, at the conclusion of which the happy pair received the sincere congratulations of their friends and relations, and after a brief reciption left upon the evening train for a tour through the Northern States.

A Promising Invention. - Our ingenious fellow citiz n. M . A. Glachet, has just obtained another patent for improvement in gas apparatus, and is about to have a stove manufactured for the purpose of putting his invention into practical use. He has his own home nicely lighted up with gas of his own manufacture, though, as yet, his apparatus is of rather a rule character. A common stove, with a round hale in its front, into which is inserted an iron a solution of lime, serve as purifiers, while one large tin oil barrel inverted into a larger one, ranged from the ceiling, does duty as a gas striking distance. helder. Yet, with these simple appliances, a full supply of excellent gas is obtained, and no gas bill to pay. Of course, the gas costs somewhich it was made leaves coke to assist in lawn, was sent to this office to-day. making more gas the next day. Against the only possible danger which could be apprehended, the clogging of the pipes, Mr. Glachet has provided by attaching to the retort a safety valve, opening into the stove, so that, if overcharged, it will give its surplus to the stove | E. PREACHER. - The Equity Court of Washington has been called to interfere in the troubles that exist in the Sixth Street Colored Baptist C urch of that city. Rev. R. S. Laws, a wellknown colored clergyman of Alexandria county, ti da bill yesterday morning against Rev. Wm. 11. Lee, the pastor of the church, setting forth that he (Laws) had, on the 4th of October. been chosen pastor of the church by the congregation, but that Lee had refused to surrender the pulpit to him, and asking an injunction to restrain Lee from longer acting as pastor of the church and fi ling the pulpit. Jurige Olin made an order requiring Lee to answer the bill on or before the 19th instant. The case was before the Maryland Baptist Association at its last meeting, and it attracts much attention among the colored Baptists of Maryland and

DEAD BODY WASHED ASHORE -The dead body of an unknown man was washed ashore at the Arsenal wharf, about noon yesterday, but is in such a state of decomposition that recognition is almost impossible. It was removed to the first precinct station, in Washington, and was left for identification until this morning, at ten o'clock, when an inquest was to have been held, if deemed necessary. Deceased was a man of about sixty five years of age, has grey hair, and is about five feet seven inches in height. He was poorly clad when found, and had a deep cut over the left eye, which the Coroner thought was caused by the action of the water. He had no shoes on, and his only garments were a pair of brown pantaioons and a coarse knit shirt. The affair is involved in CINCINNATI. Oct. 13, 2 a. m .- The official returns from eighteen wards and precincts in Hamilton county gives Hayes 4,834, Allen Hamilton county gives Hayes 4,834, Allen the capture of Nichels, the abscording bank 4 345. The whole Republican county ticket is ma ager, and his son, is to the effect that they probably elected.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 13. - Seventy-one out of eighty five precincts in Hamilton county give Hayes a majority of 908, and sixty-one precincts give Young, Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor, a majority over Samuel Carey, Democrat, of 2.800. The 4th Ward, first precinct, gives Allen a majority of 726, a Democratic gain. The Republicans elect their members of the Legislature by an average majority of 2,000. It is estimated that Hayes' majority in this county will reach 1,500.

IOWA. Tipton, Iowa., Oct. 13, 1:20 a. m.-The Democrats gained in this township, over last year, a hundred votes. Marshalltown returns, at 11:30, indicate that the county gives 1,700

Republican majority. DES MOINES, Iowa, Oct. 13, 1 a m - Special dispatches, received by the State register up to this hour, indicate a Republican majority of 30,000, at least a steady Republican gain in the Legislature. Special dispatches, sent at midnight, show Republican gains of a Representative in Clark county, one in Fremont county, two in Mahaska county, one in Poweschick county, and one in Berlin.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13, 2 a. m.--The returns from Lowa, up to this hour, show Republican victories in nearly every county, and in most are badly scratched in a number of places. Gov. Kirkwood is elected by a large majority, and the Legislature will have an increased num ber of Republican members.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 13. - In Kearney county the Republican State, judicial and county tickets are elected by handsome majorities. In Douglass county the vote is so near counted that it is safe to say the Republican State and judicial tickets are carried by good majorities; also the County Clerk and Treasurer. Fairfax county, sep 18-w4w LEDGER'S FLUID (RED), THE UNI-VERSAL DISINFECTANT. (Permanganate of Soda.) It is the only true disinfectant known, all other preparations sold for this pur-pose being merely deodorizers (or articles which possess the property of overpowering unpleasant smells by their own pungent and often disagreeable and dangerous qualities.) It is particularly adopted for disinfecting sick rooms in cases of typhus feyer, small pox, cholera, scarlet fever, diarrhoes, and all contagious diseases, and for puritying rooms in which there are dead bodies. removing at once all unpleasant smells, and destroying effectually any latent germs of dis-ease. By placing the dituted fluid in dishes or basins, about bed chambers, school rooms, work shops, hospital wards, &c., it keeps the air in a perfect state of purity. For stables, slaughter houses, butchers' shops, dairies, cellars, &c., it is invaluable, keeping them in a perfectly wholesome state by morely sprinkling the diwholesome state, by merely sprinkling the di-luted fluid over the floors and walls. It keeps dust bi s, water closets, drains, urinals, &c ... sweet and wholesome, by using once or twice a day. For sale by JANNEY & CO.,
